A WEEKLY PATRIOTIC PRAYER BULLETIN
MERGING PRAYER AND PATRIOTISM

Dear Watchman,

I woke up this morning at 5:00AM and just finished praying for you, this ministry, and our nation. I feel the Lord spoke to me to pray over an anointed piece of cloth on your behalf. Prayer cloths are used as a point of contact to release our faith. I will provide a prayer cloth soon for this purpose. The Bible states

“Where two agree as touching anything according to the will of God, it shall be done.”

My prayer for you is as follows: Lord, I pray for my friend today to be strong, steadfast, healed, and prosperous. I pray not by might, nor by power, but by Your Spirit they will overcome all confrontations. I pray for joy and blessings; for wonders to behold. Satan dreads the discoveries that are before them. May the Lord give them faith to face down fear and conquer it. I pray negatives will be turned into positives. Romans 8:28. As I'm believing for my spiritual release, I'm also believing for theirs. May they seize all opportunities set before them. In Jesus' name. Amen.

I woke up at 12:30AM on Tuesday to pray. I was wide awake and knew the Lord was drawing me to pray on my prayer rug. I knelt and began to cry out to God concerning our land and the Insight television broadcast. I've prayed for over a month for God to bring in the funding for television nationwide, and Texas and New Mexico. My prayers were not answered and I realized it was out of my hands. I knew I had to cancel the broadcast on February 1st. After much travail I concluded “at least I tried.” As I began to pray, the Lord spoke to me to release what we needed, and not release (cancel) the broadcast. It takes faith to stand in the face of defeat and believe God for Divine intervention. My prayers changed. He is able to do exceedingly abundantly above anything we can ever ask or think. Doubt disintegrated. The Lord spoke again, “You have not because you ask not.”

It is very difficult for me to ask for financial support. As you know, I'm not a “pick pocket preacher.” I have the best ministry partners in the world. I thank God for you. But, when the Lord has said to pray in the harvest, it is not for me or the ministry, it's a way for the sower to reap. That's you! God wants to release your harvest. Sowing and reaping is His universal law.

Last year, it was because of you and a few “eagles” who gave generously, that the Insight broadcast went nationwide. Some gave as much as $5,000 donations! It was an exciting time and the Insight broadcast has been on the air nationwide since fall 2011. The program was key in postponing the listing of the sand dune lizard as an endangered species in New Mexico and the Permian Basin. The December 14th deadline was postponed for six months because we rose up in prayer, faith, and action for our land. It's no wonder Satan would like to silence the Insight broadcast. American Christians need to wake up and rise up. Catholic Christians are waking up and pushing back and we must join them. There is power in numbers where government is concerned. We can shut the Obama administration down. Will you help me?

Barack Obama and Adolf Hitler Kindred Spirits?

Last week, I mentioned Hitler and Obama have similarities. Following are select quotes from Mein Kampf Adolf Hitler's manifesto. They were compiled and commented on by Jim Walker, November 28, 1996. The comparison to our current leadership in the White House is frightening!

People often make the claim that Adolph Hitler adhered to Atheism, Humanism or some ancient Nordic pagan mythology. None of these fanciful and wrong ideas hold. Although one of Hitler's henchmen, Alfred Rosenberg, did undertake a campaign of Nordic mythological propaganda, Hitler and most of his henchmen did not believe in it. Many American books, television documentaries, and Sunday sermons that preach of Hitler's "evil" have eliminated Hitler's god for their Christian audiences, but one only has to read from his own writings to appreciate that Hitler's God equals the same God of the Christian Bible. Hitler held many hysterical beliefs which not only include, God and Providence but also Fate, Social Darwinism, and ideological politics. He spoke, unashamedly, about God, fanaticism, idealism, dogma, and the power of propaganda. Hitler held strong faith in all his convictions. He justified his fight for the German people and against Jews by using Godly and Biblical reasoning. Indeed, one of his most revealing statements makes this quite clear:

"Hence today I believe that I am acting in accordance with the will of the Almighty Creator: by defending myself against the Jew, I am fighting for the work of the Lord."

Although Hitler did not practice religion in a churchly sense, he certainly believed in the Bible's God. Raised as Catholic he went to a monastery school and, interestingly, walked everyday past a stone arch which was carved the monastery's coat of arms which included a swastika. As a young boy, Hitler's most ardent goal was to become a priest. Much of his philosophy came from the Bible, and more influentially, from the Christian Social movement. (The German Christian Social movement, remarkably, resembles the Christian Right movement in America today.) Many have questioned Hitler's stand on Christianity. Although he fought against certain Catholic priests who opposed him for political reasons, his belief in God and country never left him. Many Christians throughout history have opposed Christian priests for various reasons; this does not necessarily make one against one's own Christian beliefs. Nor did the Vatican's Pope & bishops ever disown him; in fact they blessed him! As evidence to his claimed Christianity, he said:

"My feelings as a Christian point me to my Lord and Savior as a fighter. It points me to the man who once in loneliness, surrounded by a few followers, recognized these Jews for what they were and summoned men to fight against them and who, God's truth! was greatest not as a sufferer but as a fighter. In boundless love as a Christian and as a man I read through the passage which tells us how the Lord at last rose in His might and seized the scourge to drive out of the Temple the brood of vipers and adders. How terrific was His fight for the world against the Jewish poison. To-day, after two thousand years, with deepest emotion I recognize more profoundly than ever before the fact that it was for this that He had to shed His blood upon the Cross. As a Christian I have no duty to allow myself to be cheated, but I have the duty to be a fighter for truth and justice... And if there is anything which could demonstrate that we are acting rightly it is the distress that daily grows. For as a Christian I have also a duty to my own people.

-Adolf Hitler, in a speech on 12 April 1922 (Norman H. Baynes, ed. The Speeches of Adolf Hitler, April 1922-August 1939, Vol. 1 of 2, pp. 19-20, Oxford University Press, 1942)

Hitler's anti-Semitism grew out of his Christian education. Christian Austria and Germany in his time took for granted the belief that Jews held an inferior status to Aryan Christians. Jewish hatred did not spring from Hitler; it came from the preaching of Catholic priests and Protestant ministers throughout Germany for hundreds of years. The Protestant leader, Martin Luther, himself, held a livid hatred for Jews and their Jewish religion. In his book, "On the Jews and their Lies," Luther set the standard for Jewish hatred in Protestant Germany up until World War II. Hitler expressed a great admiration for Martin Luther.

Hitler did not have to parade his belief in God, as so many American Christians do now. Nor did he have to justify his Godly belief against an Atheist movement. He took his beliefs for granted just as most Germans did at that time. His thrust aimed at politics, not religion. But through his political and religious reasoning he established in 1933, a German Reich Christian Church, uniting the Protestant churches to instill faith in a national German Christianity. Future generations should remember that Adolph Hitler could not have come into power without the support of the Protestant and Catholic churches and the German Christian populace.

The following quotes provide some of Hitler's expressions of his belief in religion, faith, fanaticism, Providence, and even a few of his paraphrasing of the Bible. It by no means represents the totality of Hitler's concerns. To realize the full context of these quotes, I implore the reader to study Mein Kampf.

The purpose of this text intends to dispute the claims made by Christians that Hitler "was an atheist," or "anti-religious," and to reveal the dangers of belief-systems. This text in no way attempts to give endorsement to anti-Semitism.

Volume 2, Chapter 1, Philosophy and Party

Thus inwardly armed with confidence in God and the unshakable stupidity of the voting citizenry, the politicians can begin the fight for the 'remaking' of the Reich as they call it.
- Adolf Hitler (Mein Kampf)

By helping to raise man above the level of bestial vegetation, faith contributes in reality to the securing and safeguarding of his existence. Take away from present-day mankind its education-based, religious-dogmatic principles-- or, practically speaking, ethical-moral principles-- by abolishing this religious education, but without replacing it by an equivalent, and the result will be a grave shock to the foundations of their existence.
- Adolf Hitler (Mein Kampf)

Of course, even the general designation 'religious' includes various basic ideas or convictions, for example, the indestructibility of the soul, the eternity of its existence, the existence of a higher being, etc. But all these ideas, regardless of how convincing they may be for the individual, are submitted to the critical examination of this individual and hence to a fluctuating affirmation or nega-tion until emotional divination or knowledge assumes the binding force of apodictic faith. This, above all, is the fighting factor which makes a breach and opens the way for the recognition of basic religious views.

- Adolf Hitler (Mein Kampf)

Anyone who dares to lay hands on the highest image of the Lord commits sacrilege against the benevolent creator of this miracle and contributes to the expulsion from paradise.

- Adolf Hitler (Mein Kampf)

Volume 2, Chapter 2, The State

We, as Aryans, can conceive of the state only as the living organism of a nationality which not only assures the preservation of its nationality, but by the development of its spiritual and ideal abilities leads it to the highest freedom.

- Adolf Hitler (Mein Kampf)

the task of preserving and advancing the highest humanity, given to this earth by the benevolence of the Almighty, seems a truly high mission.

- Adolf Hitler (Mein Kampf)

World history is made by minorities when this minority of number embodies the majority of will and determination.

- Adolf Hitler (Mein Kampf)

There is only one holiest human right, and this right is at the same time the holiest obligation, to wit: to see to it that the blood is preserved pure and, by preserving the best humanity, to create the possibility of a nobler development of these beings.

A folkish state must therefore begin by raising marriage from the level of a continuous defilement of the race, and give it the consecration of an institution which is called upon to produce images of the Lord and not monstrosities halfway between man and ape.

- Adolf Hitler (Mein Kampf)

(Hitler's concept of holy blood comes right out of the Bible. The Bronze-Age Bible authors thought that the spirit of life consisted of blood. (See Leviticus 17:11, 14). In the New Testament, God made of one blood all nations of men... (See Acts 17:24-26). The Biblical Paul saw himself as "pure from the blood of all men." (Acts 20:26). Hitler here sees blood (life) preservation as a holy right to produce images of the Lord. This clearly forms a religious justification for racial purity and contradicts any notion of Darwinism.)

Stop the spending! Save Money by Dissolving Federal Agencies Duplicating State Governance

We need to keep pressure on Congress and the 2012 presidential candidate to dissolve the following federal agencies:

1. Department of Interior, and Fish and Wildlife
2. Department of Energy
3. Department of Agriculture
4. Department of Health and Human Services
5. Department of Education

We must demand all federal employees pay into Social Security, and if they want a pension plan, then they can pay for it out of their paychecks—not us. Federal employees should also begin paying into their healthcare plan just like the rest of us. Abortions and contraceptives should be excluded from health insurance coverage and government assistance. Personal responsibility should prevail here.

Obama is steadily cutting Medicare benefits to the “non-producers.” Population control is at the root here. In the next few weeks, if the US Supreme Court rules Obamacare is constitutional we are doomed. Pray the court not rule as such!

We need to expand our television outreach. I am working to organize 3,000 intercessors across America. Only God can save us! American Christians need to hear our message as never before. Obama’s plans to ration our energy, food, and healthcare must be exposed in every church in America. We only have a few months until the November elections. Time is short. The Lord spoke to me to believe Him for $100,000 to thrust forward.

I know many of my partners are doing all they can. But, the Lord revealed there are those who need a release in the spirit realm. As you obey God’s voice to help the Insight ministry reach its $100,000 goal, your much needed breakthrough will come. Break the bondage of fear, poverty, and hindrances off your life and family. Move forward with God and watch Him work.

Prayer Points

The thief comes not but to steal, kill, and destroy. Pray for God to expose Obama every time he twists the truth, and Scripture, to cover his wickedness.

PRAY Americans see through the lies of “women’s healthcare” when justifying abortion, forced contraceptive coverage by insurance companies, and sterilization, coming from the Obama administration, the feminists, and liberal pundits.

PRAY for the truth of Obamacare to be exposed. The cutting of Medicare, the increase in funding abortions and sterilization, the rationing of healthcare all add up to the liberal doctrine of “population control!” The Obamacare “death panel” is organized and ready to begin implementing the new healthcare law. The cost of health insurance has skyrocketed. Those who can’t afford it will be forced to pay a $795 fine each year to the IRS at tax time. Receiving medical care will be worse than going to the Driver’s License office. Only God can save us!

PRAY for our Diplomatic Prayer Summit to be a miraculous gathering. Pray for 30 table sponsors to come forward. Pray all 30 county mayors or commissioners will attend as our special guests.

PRAY for Insight to reach its $100,000 funding goal. Pray for the funds to come in to keep the Insight broadcast on the air.

PRAY for the 3,000 intercessors to come forward.

PRAY for Obama’s mask to be removed before November.
