A WEEKLY PATRIOTIC PRAYER BULLETIN
MERGING PRAYER AND PATRIOTISM

Dear Watchman,

Happy New Year to you! I had a very nice Christmas and New Year's Day and I pray you did too. It felt good to rest for a few days and acknowledge the birth of our Lord Jesus Christ. Of course we know that no one knows the exact day Jesus was born, but at least His birth is still celebrated! Many are trying to stamp it out of history, but thank the Lord, His birth is still being celebrated 2000 years later.

This year is going to be just as intense as 2011. Our work as intercessors is set before us. We must stay strong, alert, informed, and united in prayer. I wrote to you last week concerning the numerology of 2012. It is an exciting hope that our work in 2011 has set the stage for God to re-establish His kingdom in 2012.

Our victory postponing the listing of the Dune lizard as an endangered species is nothing compared to the environmentalist racketeering going on in our federal government. These lawyers have found a loop hole in legislation that allows them to file bogus lawsuits and collect attorneys' fees with fake claims---unchecked by Congress or anyone in authority. What a racket and best kept secret of the environmental movement. My goal this year is to bring this to the attention of the national media and the American tax payers. My goal is to stop this dead in its tracks. Rebuke the devourer in Jesus' name! We will first take authority over the demonic forces in the spirit realm, then see the manifestation of our prayers.

This is what the word of the Lord says:

'Many False Prophets Will Arise and Deceive Many'

Article by Tom Robinson

When Jesus Christ foretold the major trends that would precede His return to earth, the first sign He mentioned was religious imposters who would come in His name. Do you take that warning seriously?

When Jesus' disciples asked Him what would herald His coming to rule all nations,?

[4] And Jesus answered and said unto them, Take heed that no man deceive you. [5] For many shall come in my name, saying, I am Christ; and shall deceive many. [what shall be the sign when all these things shall be fulfilled? And Jesus answering them began to say, Take heed lest any man deceive you:[6] For many shall come in my name, saying, I am Christ; and shall deceive many. [7] And when ye shall hear of wars and rumors of wars, be ye not troubled: for such things must needs be; but the end shall not be yet. [8] For nation shall rise against nation, and kingdom against kingdom: and there shall be earthquakes in divers places, and there shall be famines and troubles: these are the beginnings of sorrows.

Luke 21:7-8 [7] And they asked him, saying, Master, but when shall these things be? and what sign will there be when these things shall come to pass? [8] And he said, Take heed that ye be not deceived: Jesus said that these were just the "beginning of sorrows"

Let's take a closer look at the first of these trends—religious deception.

“Many shall come in my name . . .”

Just what is the nature of this deception? Notice Jesus' specific warning: “Take heed that no man deceive you. For many shall come in my name, saying, I am Christ; and shall deceive many” (verses 4-5, King James Version).

Indeed, notice again that Jesus said, “Many shall come in my name”—His name being Jesus. Furthermore, they would come in His name, not with His name or bearing His name. In other words, they would presume to represent Him—not assume His identity.

So a clearer rendering of what Jesus meant in verses 4-5 would be: “Take heed that no one deceives you. For many shall come claiming to represent Me, yet shall deceive many.” That is, they would proclaim Jesus as the biblical Messiah and would claim to be His representatives—but they actually would be part of a massive religious deception.

It is these people—false preachers and teachers claiming to be Christian—who would proliferate and deceive ever more people as the end of the age neared.

The apostle Paul later affirmed, in a Christian context, that “evil men and imposters will grow worse and worse, deceiving and being deceived” (2 Timothy 3:13; But evil men and seducers shall wax worse and worse, deceiving, and being deceived.). So not only do they deceive others. These false teachers themselves are deceived.

Lawless Fruits

In His famous Sermon on the Mount, Jesus issued the following warning regarding false prophets or preachers: “Beware of false prophets, who come to you in sheep's clothing, but inwardly they are ravenous wolves.” (Matthew 7:15 Beware of false prophets, which come to you in sheep's clothing, but inwardly they are ravening wolves). Jesus being the great Shepherd, His followers are portrayed as sheep. Yet these false prophets only appear to be Jesus' followers. Their true nature is one of devouring the lives of the unsuspecting—as a wolf among the flock.

Paul would later warn of this as well. He told the leaders of the church in Ephesus: “For I know this, that after my departure savage wolves will come in among you, not sparing the flock. Also from among yourselves men will rise up, speaking perverse things, to draw away the disciples after themselves.”

(Acts 20:29-30 [29] For I know this, that after my departing shall grievous wolves enter in among you, not sparing the flock.[30]Also of your own selves shall men arise, speaking perverse things, to draw away disciples after them.)

Yet such imposters would be identifiable. Jesus explained: “You will know them by their fruits. Do men gather grapes from thorn bushes or figs from thistles? Even so, every good tree bears good fruit, but a bad tree bears bad fruit.”

(Verse 21) Then notice: “Many will say to Me in that day, ‘Lord, Lord, have we not prophesied [preached or taught] in Your name, cast out demons in Your name, and done many wonders in Your name?’”

(Verse 22) Again, as in Matthew 24, we see such preachers coming in Jesus' name—having done various works in His name. But their lives are not lives conformed to the will of God. Jesus concludes, “And then I will declare to them, ‘I never knew you; depart from Me, you who practice lawlessness!’”

Exalting Traditions Over God's Law

“Hypocrites! Well did Isaiah prophesy about you, saying: ‘These people draw near to Me with their mouth, and honor Me with their lips, but their heart is far from Me. And in vain they worship Me, teaching as doctrines the commandments of men.’”

Matthew 15: [7]Ye hypocrites, well did Esaias prophesy of you, saying,[8]This people draweth nigh unto me with their mouth, and honoureth me with their lips; but their heart is far from me.[9]But in vain they do worship me, teaching for doctrines the commandments of men. Thus it is actually possible to worship God in vain—uselessly—in this case by putting the traditions of men ahead of the commandments of God.

Counterfeit Christianity

Jesus' prophecy of false teachers coming in His name began to be fulfilled even during the era of the apostles. Paul mentioned a number of false teachers. He said a “different gospel” was already being preached (Galatians 1:6; I marvel that ye are so soon removed from him that called you into the grace of Christ unto another gospel.)

Modern day prophets need to be measured by the word of God. I have seen many prophets tested against the word of God and found lacking. They not only prophesy falsely, but do so for financial gain. Thus, many are deceived. Beware of “pick-pocket preachers and pick-pocket prophets.” I call it charismatic witchcraft. It can prove to be destructive and destroy lives.

Let me pray for you today that you will have the spirit of discernment to determine what is truth according to God's word and that you will walk in truth, and the truth shall set you free!

Faye's Warning Dream

I had an interesting dream right before Christmas. I dreamt one of my partners came into millions of dollars. I had prayed for her inheritance to be released and it was! When she received her inheritance, her mother asked her to give the Insight ministry $1 million so we could launch the television ministry nationally in a major way. It was important that our message be heard by the masses in America. Especially being an election year, and the battle being waged against our oil and energy resources.

The woman didn't want to give any of her inheritance away ($35 million). In the dream I was an onlooker and not involved in the decision process. The next thing I knew, we were in an Insight rally and she was there. She called me over to her table and told me to look to the right. High on a balcony there was the most handsome man with a big smile and he had drums and was going to sing. She said, "Faye, I've brought a new minister here today and he is excited to meet all your leaders." His stage was high and to the right. Everyone was seated facing the front of the room and would have to turn their heads to listen to this glorious newcomer. I looked up at him and to the intercessors seated. The room was filled to capacity. I said to her, "There will be no place for this counterfeit at this meeting. I don't know him or anything about what he represents. I also feel you need to go with him because my leaders are off limits to false teachers. This house is a house of prayer."

When I said that, the room was filled with angels tapping my intercessors on the shoulders and saying give offerings to Faye. Do it today! Give today! They were actually fund raising for me! I awoke and was speaking aloud "Our funds and ministry are loosed, praise God! I passed the test. I refuse to be bought or tricked!"

The angels are speaking to people to pray. God wants 3,000 Christians to step up and commit to prayer and fasting every week with the Insight prayer network. If you are a part of a group where spiritualism is at the forefront, and charismatic preachers or prophets are controlling your decisions, you may be well advised to dissolve that relationship. Follow the humble and watch God move in your life.

50 Economic Numbers From 2011 That Are Almost Too Crazy To Believe

<http://theeconomiccollapseblog.com>

Even though most Americans have become very frustrated with this economy, the reality is that the vast majority of them still have no idea just how bad our economic decline has been or how much trouble we are going to be in if we don't make dramatic changes immediately.

If we do not educate the American people about how deathly ill the U.S. economy has become, then they will just keep falling for the same old lies that our politicians keep telling them. Just "tweaking" things here and there is not going to fix this economy. We truly do need a fundamental change in direction. America is consuming far more wealth than it is producing and our debt is absolutely exploding.

If we stay on this current path, an economic collapse is inevitable. Hopefully the crazy economic numbers from 2011 that I have included in this article will be shocking enough to wake some people up.

At this time of the year, a lot of families get together, and in most homes the conversation usually gets around to politics at some point. Hopefully many of you will use the list below as a tool to help you share the reality of the U.S. economic crisis with your family and friends. If we all work together, hopefully we can get millions of people to wake up and realize that "business as usual" will result in a national economic apocalypse.

The following are 50 economic numbers from 2011 that are almost too crazy to believe....

- #1 A staggering 48 percent of all Americans are either considered to be "low income" or are living in poverty.
- #2 Approximately 57 percent of all children in the United States are living in homes that are either considered to be "low income" or impoverished.
- #3 If the number of Americans that "wanted jobs" was the same today as it was back in 2007, the "official" unemployment rate put out by the U.S. government would be up to 11 percent.
- #4 The average amount of time that a worker stays unemployed in the United States is now over 40 weeks.
- #5 One recent survey found that 77 percent of all U.S. small businesses do not plan to hire any more workers.
- #6 There are fewer payroll jobs in the United States today than there were back in 2000 even though we have added 30 million extra people to the population since then.
- #7 Since December 2007, median household income in the United States has declined by a total of 6.8% once you account for inflation.
- #8 According to the Bureau of Labor Statistics, 16.6 million Americans were self-employed back in December 2006. Today, that number has shrunk to 14.5 million.

#21 According to the U.S. Census Bureau, 18 percent of all homes in the state of Florida are sitting vacant. That figure is 63 percent larger than it was just ten years ago.

#23 As I have written about previously, 19 percent of all American men between the ages of 25 and 34 are now living with their parents.

#24 Electricity bills in the United States have risen faster than the overall rate of inflation for five years in a row.

#29 It is being projected that the U.S. trade deficit for 2011 will be 558.2 billion dollars.

#41 Today, one out of every seven Americans is on food stamps and one out of every four American children is on food stamps.

#43 A staggering 48.5% of all Americans live in a household that receives some form of government benefits. Back in 1983, that number was below 30 percent.

#44 Right now, spending by the federal government accounts for about 24 percent of GDP. Back in 2001, it accounted for just 18 percent.

#45 For fiscal year 2011, the U.S. federal government had a budget deficit of nearly 1.3 trillion dollars. That was the third year in a row that our budget deficit has topped one trillion dollars.

#47 Amazingly, the U.S. government has now accumulated a total debt of 15 trillion dollars. When Barack Obama first took office the national debt was just 10.6 trillion dollars.

#49 The U.S. national debt has been increasing by an average of more than 4 billion dollars per day since the beginning of the Obama administration.

#50 During the Obama administration, the U.S. government has accumulated more debt than it did from the time that George Washington took office to the time that Bill Clinton took office.

The three who brought down Wall Street

Here's a quick look into the three former Fannie Mae executives who brought down Wall Street:

Franklin Raines was a Chairman and Chief Executive Officer at Fannie Mae. Raines was forced to retire from his position with Fannie Mae when auditing discovered severe irregularities in Fannie Mae's accounting activities. Raines left with a "golden parachute valued at $240 Million in benefits. The Government filed suit against Raines when the depth of the accounting scandal became clear.

Tim Howard - was the Chief Financial Officer of Fannie Mae. Howard "was a strong internal proponent of using accounting strategies that would ensure a "stable pattern of earnings" at Fannie. Investigations by federal regulators and the company's board of directors since concluded that management did manipulate 1998 earnings to trigger bonuses. Raines and Howard resigned under pressure in late 2004. Howard's Golden Parachute was estimated at $20 Million!

Jim Johnson - A former executive at Lehman Brothers and who was later forced from his position as Fannie Mae CEO. Investigators found that Fannie Mae had hidden a substantial amount of Johnson's 1998 compensation from the public, reporting that it was between $6 million and $7 million when in fact it was $21 million." Johnson is currently under investigation for taking illegal loans from Countrywide while serving as CEO of Fannie Mae. Johnson's Golden Parachute was estimated at $28 Million.

Where are they now?

FRANKLIN RAINES? Raines works for the Obama Campaign as his Chief Economic Adviser.

TIM HOWARD? Howard is a Chief Economic Adviser to Obama under Franklin Raines.

JIM JOHNSON? Johnson was hired as a Senior Obama Finance Adviser and was selected to run Obama's Vice Presidential Search Committee. Kinda makes you sick to your stomach. Our government seems to be rotten to the core!
