A WEEKLY PATRIOTIC PRAYER BULLETIN
MERGING PRAYER AND PATRIOTISM

Dear Watchman,

You must be feeling the pressure in the air. Turbulence is raging over our heads. American Christians are divided and the Word of God says a house divided against itself cannot stand. Watching the presidential debates and the propoganda machine is almost overwhelming. I'm constantly fighting the feeling of helplessness. But I know in the end we win, so if God be for us, who can be against us? Thus, we press on.

The Lord woke me in the wee hours of the morning to write this and pray. I'm sure many of my partners are also experiencing sleepless nights. It's the spirit of God that is stirring you to get up and pray! We are at a crossroads. As Americans, and as Christians, we've come to the end of ourselves. It's time to release ourselves to the mighty hand of God. It's also time for God to release heavenly things on our behalf. Right now, we need miracles on behalf of our land, and our personal lives.

Recently, I was personally dealing with a very troubling situation that went on for months. I knew there was nothing I could do to fix it. Absolutely nothing! I was stuck. I prayed and prayed for God to help resolve it. No breakthrough manifested. Then one night, the Lord spoke to me in intercessions and said, "Get above it. I'm working My plan." So, I changed my prayers. I began to pray for the Lord to take me higher, to take me above the storms. The Scriptures God led me to were, "I will deliver you. I will bless you and your seed." Last week, I was confronted with another attack from hell. I just wanted to go home and go to bed. I cried, "God, it's too much!" As I was praying a peace suddenly came over me. I was calm and read Psalm 92:4; For you,

Lord, have made me glad through your work; I will triumph in the works of your hands. A senseless man does not know, nor does a fool understand this. When the wicked spring up like grass, and when the workers of iniquity flourish, it is that they may be destroyed forever. For behold, your enemies shall perish; all workers of iniquity shall be scattered.

I confess that His word is true!

Beware Of Wolves

by Wayne Blank www.keyway.ca

The English word wolf originated from the old Anglo-Saxon word wulf, meaning to tear. Despite their bad reputation (many people dislike wolves because wolves commonly hunt in packs, just like humans often do), wolves do have a useful purpose to nature; their prey tends to be those who are the inferior members of any particular species, leaving the strongest animals to survive and pass their superior survival characteristics on to succeeding generations, thereby actually benefiting the species as a whole. It's only when wolves become too plentiful for a particular area, or when they begin hunting domestic animals that they become a genuine problem (wolf attacks on humans are rare). Wolves are sometimes used as an analogy for certain forms of despicable human behavior, such as misfit politicians who usurp high government office through election fraud and then manipulate and mislead their too-trusting followers thereafter by endless lies and deception (e.g. the 1997 movie Wag The Dog was more than just a masterpiece of cynical political fiction, it was very much the all too easily-recognizable reality of today). The Bible uses wolves as an analogy for those who prey upon God's "sheep."

“Wolves In Sheep’s Clothing”

Jesus Christ warned Believers to watch out for “wolves” - a warning that included a warning to the wolves themselves of the fate that awaits them if they don’t repent of their evil:

“Beware of false prophets, who come to you in sheep’s clothing but inwardly are ravenous wolves. You will know them by their fruits. Are grapes gathered from thorns, or figs from thistles? So, every sound tree bears good fruit, but the bad tree bears evil fruit. A sound tree cannot bear evil fruit, nor can a bad tree bear good fruit. Every tree that does not bear good fruit is cut down and thrown into the fire. Thus you will know them by their fruits. “Not everyone who says to Me, ‘Lord, Lord,’ shall enter the kingdom of heaven, but he who does the will of My Father Who is in heaven [see Christian Living]. On that day many will say to Me, ‘Lord, Lord, did we not prophesy in Your Name [to understand the two ways that God’s Name is taken in vain, see The Third Commandment], and cast out demons in Your Name, and do many mighty works in Your Name?’ [see I Did It My Way...] And then will I declare to them, ‘I never knew you; depart from Me, you evildoers.” (Matthew 7:15-23 RSV)

“Behold, I send you out as sheep in the midst of wolves; so be wise as serpents and innocent as doves. Beware of men; for they will deliver you up to councils, and flog you in their synagogues, and you will be dragged before governors and kings for My sake, to bear testimony before them and the Gentiles. When they deliver you up, do not be anxious how you are to speak or what you are to say; for what you are to say will be given to you in that hour; for it is not you who speak, but the Spirit of your Father speaking through you.” (Matthew 10:16-20 RSV)

The apostle Paul also warned to be on guard for the “wolves” that would surely come:

“Therefore I testify to you this day that I am innocent of the blood of all of you, for I did not shrink from declaring to you the whole counsel of God. Take heed to yourselves and to all the flock, in which the Holy Spirit has made you overseers, to care for the church of God which he obtained with the blood of his own Son. I know that after my departure fierce wolves will come in among you, not sparing the flock; and from among your own selves will arise men speaking perverse things, to draw away the disciples after them.” (Acts 20:26-30 RSV). Fact Finder: Is Jesus Christ the “good shepherd” who protects His sheep from “wolves”? John 10:11-16.

Scripture Reading

2 Timothy 3:12-14

12 Yes, and all who desire to live godly in Christ Jesus will suffer persecution. 13 But evil men and impostors will grow worse and worse, deceiving and being deceived. 14 But you must continue in the things which you have learned and been assured of, knowing from whom you have learned them,

Titus 1:9-16

9 He must hold firmly to the trustworthy message as it has been taught, so that he can encourage others by sound doctrine and refute those who oppose it.

Rebuking Those Who Fail to Do Good

10 For there are many rebellious people, full of meaningless talk and deception, especially those of the circumcision group. 11 They must be silenced, because they are disrupting whole households by teaching things they ought not to teach—and that for the sake of dishonest gain. 12 One of Crete’s own prophets has said it: “Cretans are always liars, evil brutes, lazy gluttons.”[a] 13 This saying is true. Therefore rebuke them sharply, so that they will be sound in the faith 14 and will pay no attention to Jewish myths or to the merely human commands of those who reject the truth. 15 To the pure, all things are pure, but to those who are corrupted and do not believe, nothing is pure. In fact, both their minds and consciences are corrupted. 16 They claim to know God, but by their actions they deny him. They are detestable, disobedient and unfit for doing anything good.

Follow the Facts of Obama’s Plans to Ration Food, Oil, and Healthcare!

The Lord revealed to me that Obama plans to ration our food supply. Obama’s “change” is in place. The reason we must increase the number of intercessors is because our nation is void of leadership. Also, Christians are void of leadership. We are battling the blind leading blind sheep. However, we must not give up. WE MUST STAY ON THE WALL. WE MUST FIGHT THE POWERS OF DARKNESS. This confirms why we must dismantle the federal agencies Obama is using to destroy our lives.

Think food rationing is a radical idea? Read this...

Monsanto Charged with Illegal Acts of Bio-Piracy

January 19 | Posted by political, Monsanto the bio hazard

In an unprecedented move, India has charged the mega monster GMO agriculture monopoly giant Monsanto with an illegal act of bio-piracy on its soil. India’s National Biodiversity Authority (NBA) a government agency similar to the FDA of the United States declared a legal action has commenced against Monsanto (and their collaborators) for accessing and using local eggplant varieties of plants (commonly known as Brinjal) to develop their Bt genetically engineered version without the prior approval of the authorities which is considered an act of bio-piracy. In other words, Monsanto attempted to sneak in their genetic versions of eggplant, common to the diet of the people of India without advising the government.

This is a very serious act of a conspiracy to genetically alter the food supply of a country and it is illegal, devious and also very harmful to the financial well being of the countries agricultural systems.

In the article on Green Med Info the abstract states:
 Breaking News in Europe that Breaks Monsanto's Claims to Patents on Seeds

"An Indian government agency has agreed to sue the developers of genetically modified (GM) eggplant for violating India's Biological Diversity Act of 2002. India's National Biodiversity Authority (NBA) is alleging that the developers of India's first GM food crop—Jalna-based Maharashtra Hybrid Seeds Company (Mahyco) partnered with St. Louis-based seed giant Monsanto and several local universities—used local varieties to develop the transgenic crop, but failed to gain the appropriate licenses for field trials. At the same time, activists in Europe are claiming that patents on conventionally bred plants, including a melon found in India, filed by biotech companies violate farmers' rights to use naturally occurring breeds.

Both these pending legal cases could set important precedents for biopiracy in India and Europe.

In another development in early November, the Munich-based European Patent Office referred to its Enlarged Board of Appeals a case involving conventionally bred tomatoes, which will likely shape any future enforcement of the Monsanto-owned melon patent, says Christoph Then, spokesman for advocacy group No Patents on Seeds. "It is a signal that the European Patent Office has severe doubts about this kind of patent," he says." end quote. Monsanto has put out of business and take farmers off their farms by suing them in court, just as they tried to do in the USA and Canada.

First the seeds blow into a farmers field by wind and by natural methods, then Monsanto claims the farmer is infringing on their patents. Monsanto then drags farmers through the court system, and repossesses their land, farms and livelihood.

This is the most treacherous act of a corporation the world has ever seen since Hitler.

There is much to say about the terrorism Monsanto has instilled around the world with its GMO seeds and claims to have patents on seeds when the basis of their products are naturally found, seeds cannot be patented just by adding pesticides.

What Monsanto did to natural cotton seed in India has bankrupt many farmers with failed crops of their GMO Bt Cotton. It is called the GM GENOCIDE OF INDIA. As far back as four years ago, Monsanto when Prince Charles announced that thousands of Indian farmers were killing themselves after using GM seed for crops he was branded a loon.

Monsanto promised that the farmers would have never ending yields and bountiful harvests if they switched their seeds to GMO genetically modified cotton. The farmers borrowed money to buy the seeds, and when the plants failed they had no income to feed their families. Over 125,000 farmers committed suicide as a result of Monsanto's products, claims and the destruction of the natural seeds of the country.

Prince Charles set up a charity the Bhumi Vardaan Foundation to help the families of this tragic event.

Prince Charles had come out against GM as a "global moral question" and that the time had come to end the march towards a genetically modified agricultural system of poor results and the unnecessary alterations of food. Recent reports from India is that the rural people are dying a slow death by swallowing insecticide. The farmers are massively in debt for buying Monsanto's expensive seeds. The entire agriculture of India stands to be destroyed by Monsanto's gmo seed.

Traditionally agriculture inspite of the lack of rain at times would still be plentiful and the farmers would still be alive. Many children are abandoned now without parents because either one or both have killed themselves.

The magic seeds are not cheap and come at a steep price of 10 pounds for 100 grams, which traditional cotton seeds are 10 pounds for 1,000 times more seed.

The seeds were sold as being "pest proof" seeds but that turned out to be a lie also. The bollworms a parasite devoured the crops. Monsanto also said the seeds would require less water which wasn't the case, and water was a matter between living and dying in this drought prone area of India.

Yes, Monsanto is set to rule the world with their 'food domination' sickness and their believe that "He who controls the seed, controls the world". In their corporate madness Monsanto believes it will one day control the whole world.

Monsanto Owns the US Department of Agriculture

The US Patent Office must undergo a complete investigation for granting Monsanto "any" patents that include a naturally found seed. The smell of a corrupt system in US politics lends itself to critical review in granting a corporation that is so deeply intertwined with the US Dept of Agriculture.

The head of the Dept of Agriculture Tom Vilsack was once an attorney for Monsanto and handled their law suits. He now makes national decisions that affect 350 million Americans in the food they put in their babies mouths. The very food that they feed their elderly parents -is in the hands of Monsanto's own lawyer. How on earth does he sleep at night.

So far, Tom Vilsack has approved GMO sugar beets, corn, cotton, soy, wheat in the United States to be infected with GMO seed. The heavy use of Round UP, Monsanto's pesticide is needed in greater quantities to keep the weeds out of crops. That was indeed their plan.

GMO Corn has spread to Canada, and Canadian wheat fields including the canola fields of one farmer who fought back. His name is Perce Schmeiser, and you can Google him for more details. Percy fought Monsanto in court and won.

In Peru, the country has banned Monsanto for 10 years. It is time for the US government to stop the spread of a bio-hazard and stop GMO in foods for American families. It is time for President Obama to put a stop to this madness that will destroy the very food that people eat. The time has come to end Monsanto's strangle hold on the country and its health if it is to have a future.
